

Coordinators: Li-Kung Chi, Mei Mei Wu, National Taiwan Normal University, Taiwan

SESSION TITLE: Critical Theories for Library Practice: Three Cases

Scope & rationale: In this session, three research will be presented using critical social theories, including institutional alienation (The phenomena of alienation within the modern librarianship: An observation of academic librarians' everyday tasks / Li-Kung Chi, Mei Mei Wu), Mouffe's "Agonistic Pluralism" (Exploring the Collective Impressions of the Library by Chantal Mouffe's "Agonistic Pluralism" / Su-Yi Lee, Mei Mei Wu) and post-truth (Sharing fake news on social media "Line": A concept of post-truth/ Nei-Ching Yeh).

List of papers

1. The Phenomena of Alienation within the Modern Librarianship: An Observation of Academic Librarians' Everyday Tasks, Li-Kung Chi, Mei Mei Wu
2. Exploring the Collective Impressions of the Library by Chantal Mouffe's "Agonistic Pluralism", Su-Yi Lee, Mei Mei Wu
3. Sharing Fake News on Social Media "Line": A Concept of Post-truth, Nei-Ching Yeh